Dear Jill,

On behalf of the Faculty of Social Work, I want to thank you for your participation in our annual Social Work Career Fair. By participating in this event you provide a valuable opportunity to our students, both those that are nearing the end of their program and are exploring career opportunities, and those earlier in the program who have the opportunity to see the wide variety of experiences available in their future career in social work, helping them to structure their volunteer and service learning activities that are a critical component of our academic program. We hope the experience is as equally valuable for you as you connect with potential future employees.

From a volunteer and service learning perspective, the role that you play in the academic development of our students is so important and the work that you do is essential to the Bachelor of Social Work program. Your involvement with our students provides them with the opportunity to link the theories that they learn in the classroom to real-life, practical experience.

It is our hope that having our students as volunteers or on practicum placements, or as an employee, is a rewarding experience for you and meets the needs of your organization. Your work enriches not just our students and the clients whom you serve directly, but the community as a whole.

We want to thank-you for all the good work that you do.

Best regards,

I wanted to take a moment to thank Regina Police Service for your assistance with Depot's request for help with training material for the Cadet Training Program. More specifically I would like to thank Cst. Weir for his assistance with the photo shoot that we conducted on 2012-03-29.

Cst. Weir was professional throughout the process and eager to assist the RCMP with creating a quality training product. It is interactions like this that shows the importance and value to developing and maintaining professional relationships among our partner police services.

Once again, thank you to Regina Police Service and Cst. Weir for your assistance. If you are interested in the product we created please do not hesitate to contact us and we will gladly provide copies.

This is a very positive compliment you received. Your actions demonstrating empathy and support for the elderly gentleman speaks volumes about your character and the manner upon which you approach your duties. Thank-you for handling this situation very well!

Hi Chief,

I rec'd a telephone call this morning from a Mr. George Taylor. He is a retired member of the RCMP. He called to thank our member [who I've determined is Cst. Duley Ford #844] to thank him for the assistance he provided to his Father-in-Law, Mr. Jack Sprout. Mr. Sprout had fallen down. Mr. Sprout is 93 years old and physically does well, however, he is slipping mentally. Cst. Ford ensured he received the medical attention he needed as a result of his fall. Mr. Taylor is very appreciative of the respect shown by our Police Service and particularly, by Cst. Ford and wanted to pass along his thanks.

POLICE SERVICE DOG DEMONSTRATION

1. I am writing you this letter in regards to the wonderful lecture and demonstration Constable Lorence, Constable Power and Police Service Dog Cruz, provided for the Sea Cadets of 43 Royal Canadian Sea Corp IMPREGNABLE at HMCS QUEEN on 12 March 2012.
2. Constable Lorence was a wealth of information and gave a very informative lecture on the Regina Police Service Canine section. He was very professional and answered any and all questions asked.
3. The demonstration with PSD Cruz and Constable Power as the "bad guy" was not only exciting but gave us a real perspective as to how important the canine section is to the police service and to the safety of the citizens of Regina.
4. The Cadets and Officer's would like to extend our thanks to Constable's Lorence, Power and PSD Cruz for taking time out of their busy day to come to our unit and put on a demonstration second to none. BRAVO ZULU!

Yours Aye!

Dear Corporal T.F.A. Dunnigan:

I am writing to you to let you know how much I really appreciated the volunteer services provided for the 14th Annual Treaty 4 Education Conference on April 3rd-5th, 2012 by the Regina Police Service. The volunteers performed various duties and were instrumental in having the event run smoothly.

The individuals who helped were Cst. Chad Bourassa,, Heather Shepard, Cpl. Tracey Dunnigan, and Jim Pratt. I hope I'm not forgetting anyone, but certainly Cst. Chad Bourassa would be able to tell you.

The Treaty 4 Student Success Program really values a positive, strong relationship with the Regina Police Service and we hope to continue this relationship for events in the future.

Warmly,

Dear Chief Hagen,

I would like to convey my sincere thanks for taking the time out of your busy schedule in accepting my courtesy visit in your office on April 18, 2012. It was indeed a wonderful meeting and it had created special memory for me.

Indonesia and Canada have a rich history of cooperation in many institutions and in dealing with variety of issues. I believe our meeting was an opportune occasion in strengthening ties of friendship and relations between our two institutions in working together for the benefit of the City of Regina and the Indonesian communities in Regina.

I wish your continued success in the future.

Dear Elizabeth:

This is a note I have been intending on writing for some time now. But late afternoon today, as I listened to you on CBC radio describing the safe return of the little girl for whom an amber alert had been given, I decided to come home and write to you.

For some years now I have appreciated the ways in which you handle what must be a stressful, challenging, precise and demanding job. You are the voice and face of the Police Service in the community through the media. And you do that beautifully and skillfully. You respond clearly and directly to all questions; you provide the facts; you present in a straightforward, warm, human, competent way, engendering confidence, both in you and in the Police Service.

For many years I worked in the communications/marketing field and always greatly valued the person/people who were often the first interface with the public, and therefore key, in representing an organization.....not only in providing information, but in reflecting values, character, reliability, responsiveness, respect, and caring. You do this so competently and gracefully.

This community and the Police Service benefit greatly from your skill and compassion. And I want to thank you.

Sincerely,

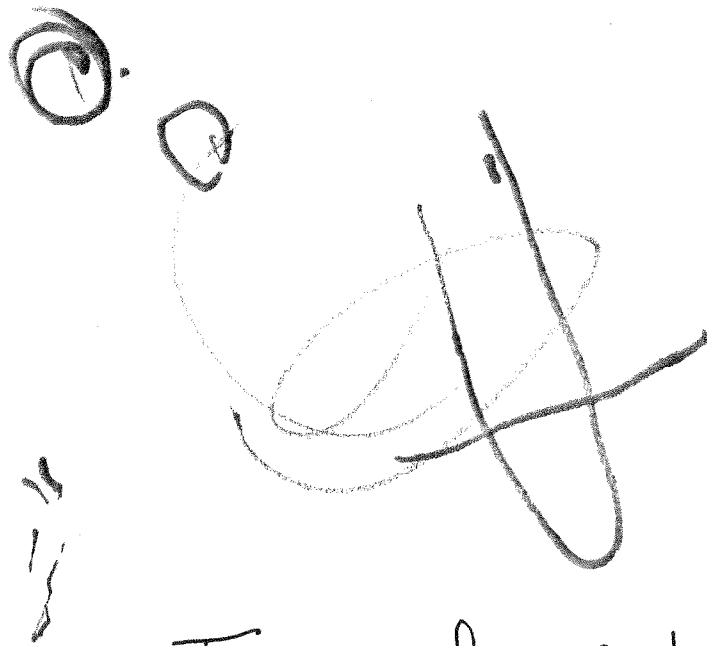

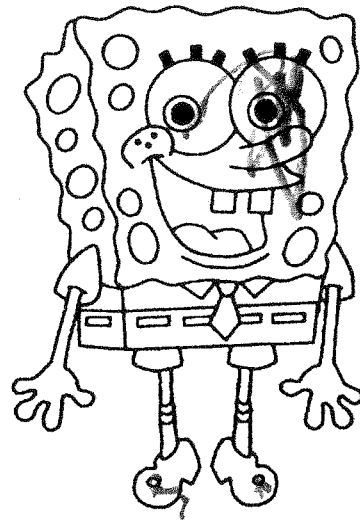

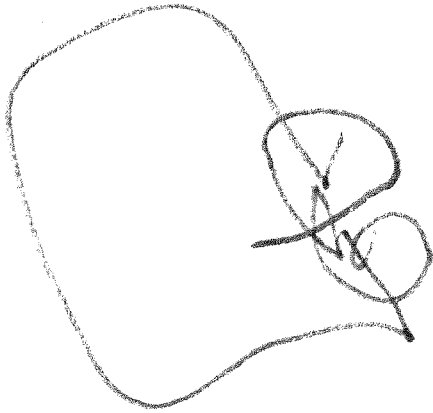

Cherie Westmoreland

Dear Chief Hagen,

I wanted to personally extend my sincere appreciation to your police agency for the outstanding contribution your officers provided during the Rick Hansen 25th Anniversary Relay as we travelled through Regina. A top priority for our team was to make the Relay a safe, engaging, community event from coast-to-coast. This would not have been possible without the time and efforts of your team.

To commemorate the 25th Anniversary of the original Man In Motion Tour, the Rick Hansen Foundation (RHF) celebrated with a number of programs and initiatives, including the Rick Hansen 25th Anniversary Relay, a nine-month cross-Canada tour, which began in Cape Spear, Newfoundland and Labrador on August 24, 2011 and concludes in Vancouver, BC on May 22, 2012. Twenty-five years ago, when I wheeled through 34 countries on my Man In Motion World Tour, I set out with the goal of raising awareness of the potential of people with disabilities. This goal would not have been possible without the Canadian police partners and their role in ensuring the safe passage of my small team.

For the 25th Anniversary Relay, the mandate was even greater – as one Man in Motion was represented by many in motion, and we celebrated 7,000 Medal-Bearers who have made a difference in the lives of others, as they walk, run or wheel through over 600 communities across the country.

I'm grateful for the commitment your police agency provided in keeping the Medal-Bearers and support staff safe and secure, and also for protecting the thousands of people and motor vehicles along the route.

Thank you once again for supporting the Relay; we could not have done it without you.

Sincerely,
