Resolution for Private Session

June 27, 2012

To: Members,
Board of Police Commissioners

Re: Monthly Crime Statistics – May 2012

RECOMMENDATION

Receive and file.

CONCLUSION

The crime statistics for the month of May 2012 reflect a decrease in Crimes Against the Person of (-17.3%) compared to May 2011, while Crimes Against Property show a (-4.9%) decrease compared to May 2011. Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property show a combined year-to-date reduction of (-7.8%).

BACKGROUND

Each month, reports providing statistics for the City of Regina are presented to the Board for their review and information. This report will provide statistics for the month of May 2012. The Communications Centre statistics are included showing the total calls for service.

DISCUSSION

Crimes Against Property reflect a decrease of (-205) reported incidents over 2011, for an overall year-to-date decrease of (-4.9%). We have seen a decrease of (-201) reported incidents of Theft Under $5000 for a (-10.5%) decrease. There are 7 more reported incidents of Mischief / Wilful Damage for a 0.7% increase. Over the past 14 months the Regina Police is noticing the emerging trend of an increase in reported incidents of Crime Against Property and applying crime prevention and enforcement measures where appropriate.

Thefts of Auto rates show an increase of 3.5% in our year-to-date statistics. The Regina Police Service in conjunction with its partners in the Stolen Auto Strategy continues to pay constant attention to this issue.

Crimes Against the Person reflect a year-to-date decrease of (-216) fewer incidents over May 2011, for a (-17.3%) decrease. There were 18 reported Robberies in May for a year-to-date decrease of (-35) incidents or a reduction of (-28.7%).

Overall the Regina Police Service has received (-421) fewer reported incidents of Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property combined in 2012 over 2011 incidents for a (-7.8%) decrease.

Total dispatched calls for service decreased by (-3.5%); with a reduction in alarm calls of (-21.3%).

Dear Elizabeth,

On behalf of the coordintating committee of the SAPAVS Road to Resiliency Conference held in Saskatoon in March of 2012, we want to thank you for your contributions made to the success of the conference. I watched with admiration as your skill, attention to detail, and your ability to connect with people helped to make our conference so successful.

We connected with over 265 individuals at the three day event. Participants left with information and tools to assist them with the work they are enabled to do and the volunteer roles which they engage in. Thank you for your involvement.

Again on behalf of the committee,thank you for your contribution and support.

With Admiration and Respect,

Linda Perrett

Dear Ms. O'Soup:

On behalf of the Policy Centre for Victim Issues at the Department of Justice Canada I would like to express our sincere thanks for your participation on the Organizing Committee for National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2012. Your patience and your willingness to continue to provide your expertise and guidance in the weeks leading up to NVCAW 2012 is very much appreciated. Planning this event is a team effort, and we are very grateful for your participation on the committee during the past year.

National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2012 was successful in meeting its main objective: raising awareness about victim issues in Canada. More communities than ever before hosted events and ran public awareness campaigns which brought attention to the needs of victims and their families. The Symposium held in Ottawa on April 23rd provided participants with an opportunity to exchange ideas and reflect on the needs of victims and current service delivery. Your contribution to the planning of NVCAW 2012 was an important part of these efforts to improve the experience of victims in the criminal justice system.

Please accept the enclosed certificate as a token of appreciation for your contribution to the Organizing Committee for National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2012.

Sincerely,

Pamela Arnott
Director and Senior Counsel
Policy Centre for Victim Issues

I rode my motorcycle in the Film Industry Rally last Monday.

Please accept my thanks for your traffic control and for making us safe as we came in off the highway.

Motorcycles are a risky activity at the best of times and a large number riding together amplifies those risks. Your escort for us minimized many risks.

Chief T. Hagen*

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank these instructors for their assistance in facilitating scenario training with Recruit Class #64. These instructors have assisted us in our goal to provide consistent messaging across the program. They have implemented new debriefing strategies to promote Recruit articulation of their decision making with respect to their legal authority and use of force in each simulated call. The articulation process has reinforced the knowledge and skills learned throughout the program and helped prepare them for report writing following the calls for service. Their participation in scenario training has ensured that skills taught in Defensive Tactics classes are performed to the same high standards taught in class. We thank Regina Police Service for the contribution of these instructors. Their ongoing efforts and dedication to excellence in training have helped us to graduate strong officers who are confident in themselves, their tactics and their overall abilities to respond to the challenges ahead. Their hard work has assisted us in strengthening the Recruit Training Program at the Saskatchewan Police College.

RE: Sgt. Brad Walter / Cpl. Ryan Dureau

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank Sgt. Walter and Cpl. Dureau for their leadership and organization for Rapid Deployment training with Recruit Class #64. Visiting the training developed by these instructors was an opportunity to see the results of tremendous organization, leadership and teamwork. The coordination of instructors and scenarios ensured that Recruits were continuously engaged in learning opportunities both in and outside of the building. These instructors have worked with us to promote Recruit articulation following scenarios to explain the decisions they made in terms of their legal authority, the grounds for their responses, as well as their use of force.

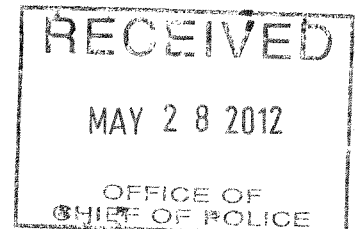

We thank Regina Police Service for the contribution of these instructors. Brad and Ryan's dedication to quality training has been a significant contribution to the Saskatchewan Police College.

RE: Cpl. Casey Ward

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank Cpl. Ward for his leadership and organization of P.O.S.T. training for the last number of Recruit classes. Casey's ongoing efforts to communicate with the College and coordinate equipment, instructors and Recruits, have contributed to significant improvements in this training. Identifying challenges in training, we worked with Casey to initiate Pre-P.O.S.T. training beginning in Class #60. Casey has also ensured that P.O.S.T. instructors promote Recruit articulation following scenarios to explain the decisions they made in terms of their legal authority and their use of force.

The results of these changes were visible to instructors at the recent Class #64 P.O.S.T. Instructors commented on the tremendous progress they have seen in the Recruits due to improvements in the P.O.S.T. training. With the addition of pre-P.O.S.T. training, as well as the practice Recruits now have during all scenarios throughout their program, Instructors indicated that Recruits are now leaving with a strong understanding of the tactics. Rather than feeling overwhelmed with many new tactics as they had in the past, Recruits are leaving confident in responding to high risk situations. Casey's hard work and leadership has been key to this tremendous progress.

We thank Regina Police Service for the contribution of Casey and the many instructors that assist him during all components of P.O.S.T. training. Casey's dedication to quality training has been a significant contribution to the Saskatchewan Police College.

Dear Chief Hagen

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank these instructors for their instruction of Defensive Tactics with Recruit Class #64. These instructors set high expectations and lead by example. This is reflected in exit survey comments by Recruits such as the following:

I couldn't ask to be taught by a better group of well trained, motivated officers.

Role models. I looked up to them all, and with them see what I can do and what I want to do in the future. I have the utmost respect for the defense tactics trainers.

We truly appreciate the dedication of personal time on the part of Trent Struble, Neil Coulthard and Kevin Breitkruz.

We thank Regina Police Service for the contribution of these instructors. The ongoing effort and dedication to excellence in training these instructors provide have helped us to graduate officers who are tactically strong.

RE: Cst. Darcy Dreaver / Cst. Leo von Falkenhausen

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank Constables Dreaver and von Falkenhausen for their efforts and dedication to excellence in training. This contribution to training through weekly Drill instruction in the Recruit Training Program is significant. The disciplined instruction Darcy and Leo provide strengthens the Recruits as a team and guides them in developing skills that build a sense of pride in the class.

We would also like to acknowledge the development of the drill program that Darcy is leading. His instruction has evolved to produce graduation drill demonstrations that are impressive for all in attendance.

We thank Regina Police Service for your ongoing contribution to training and Darcy Dreaver and Leo von Falkenhausen for their conscientious work with the Recruits at the Saskatchewan Police College.

Dear Chief Hagen

RE: Cst. Craig Solomon

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Police College we would like to take this opportunity to thank Cst. Solomon for his efforts and dedication to excellence in training. Craig's contribution to Firearms Instruction in the Recruit Training Program is significant with both weekly instructional and remedial sessions. As well, his involvement and contribution to P.O.S.T. and Rapid Deployment scenario training is appreciated by all. The work of Safety Officer is critical to the success of our training sessions.

✓ We thank Regina Police Service for your ongoing contribution to training and Craig for his diligence as he undertakes these important roles with Recruit Training at the Saskatchewan Police College.

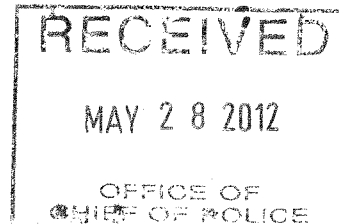

Sincerely

The students and I would like to thank Cst. Brent Clarke and Cst. Russ Temple for their visit in April. The students really enjoyed seeing the police car and the wonderful presentation from Cst. Clarke and Cst. Temple. Their presentation coincided nicely with the conclusion of our Safety in the Home and Safety on the Street educational unit. Having such a wonderful personal experience with Cst. Clarke and Cst. Temple will build many positive memories.

Hello Jim,

Thank-you for the words of appreciation. We were pleased to help out and it is always a pleasure to work in partnership with your members. I will ensure your comments are passed along to the members involved.

Once again thank-you and we look forward to the next opportunity to work together.

best regards,
Troy

Sir:

Sorry I missed you at the dinner last night. I was hoping to attend and speak with you personally however was not able to attend.

I wanted to quickly share my thoughts with you on your Service's significant role during the recent visit of the Royal couple to Regina. The support of your Traffic Services members in enabling the free movement of a 17 car motorcade around our city was invaluable. We have enjoyed a long standing relationship during such visits but I wanted to comment specifically on the last couple of days. Your members attention to their responsibilities as assigned and their absolute professional appearance and deportment without exception is to be noted. As you will recall the day's weather was less that perfect and your members handled it exceptionally.

The Personal Protection Officer for Prince Charles from England commented on a couple of occasions at the support provided by the Police Service and the members. I was left with the feeling this is not always the case as he travels across many countries with the Prince.

Sgt. Callendar again was invaluable and a strong representative of the Police Service. I cannot express strongly enough how please I was for the support and wanted to personally express my appreciation.

Thanks again.

Jim

Supt. Dudar,

Your members did an excellent job during the Royal Visit. In conjunction of this message I heard many positive comments from senior members at the RCMP mess dinner last week.

Please pass this on to the members who assisted during the visit with my appreciation as well.

Great work!

thanks,
Troy

Dear Police Service,

It is with great honour that I extend a thank you for the great service provided by the members of the Regina Police Service. I had the pleasure of joining an officer on a ride along on March 30, 2012. We responded to several calls that showed me the dangerous side of your duties. Your hard work in keeping Regina a safe community does not go unrecognized. I have attached Saskatchewan Hansard from April 16, 2012.

Thank you and wishing you all the best.

Good Morning,

We own and operate Milton Heights (formerly Tower Gardens), an apartment complex built in partnership with SaskHousing, for seniors and people who are vulnerable. Last week, per the telephone direction of your Communications staff. I arrived at the Regina Police Services offices to address a concern I had regarding a tenant. I would like to thank Staff-Sgt. Dave Virgin and the officer at the front desk for their time, attention and suggestions.

The tagline we use at Milton Heights is "Safe. Friendly. Supportive. Affordable. Community". I look forward to the continued support of the Regina City Police to ensure we maintain "safe" in our community.

Again, thank you to the two officers for their time, suggestions and professionalism. Very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Hi Judy,

On 12/06/13, at approx 1755hrs, while working in communications, I received a call from Steven Acton who provided some positive feedback regarding the police service. Acton stated he was impressed with the number of officers out catching speeders, setting up speed traps, doing laser/radar, and basically enforcing traffic safety laws. Acton works for City of Regina landscaping and says he appreciates the officer attention to speeders as it decreases the number of speeding drivers past construction sites. Steven Acton, 205-5695

Sgt. Erichsen,

I just wanted to pass on to you how impressed I am with the job that Cst. Janet Klemp has done since being appointed as the Resource Officer responsible for Martin Collegiate. She has been highly visible at our school and has a very nice way of dealing with both students and staff. Our plan is to move her office to a higher traffic area of the school because, given her strong interpersonal skills, I would like to put her closer to where she can have daily interactions with a greater percentage of our student body. At our last staff meeting she presented on proper procedure for our Code White drills which was very well received by our staff. Janet has become what I would call a regular staff member at Martin and, in my experience with previous Resource Officers, this is either not something that they want to do or it something that is difficult for them to do. Cst. Klemp has accomplished this with apparent desire and ease. Anyway, I just thought that you might be interested in my personal observation of Cst. Janet Klemp at Martin Collegiate.

Thanks,

Dear Sir:

Prince of Wales Visit to Regina
May 22 and 23, 2012

On behalf of the RCMP, we would like to thank your Police Service for its assistance with the Royal Visit. With the Prime Minister and the Governor General also attending the Federal Events in Regina this created greater challenges for our police departments. It was obvious that numerous resources were used from your Police Service to do traffic control and assist with the security of the sites.

We would like to identify the following officers who were assigned special duties for the Royal Visit:

Sgt. Brad Walters who was the liason officer for the Prime Minister.

S/Sgt. Paul Tate who was the liason officer for the Governor General.

Sgt. Andrew Puglia who was responsible for the Traffic Plan and co-ordinating the traffic control during the visit.

Cst. Darcy Dreaver who was the co-ordinator for the Ceremonial Dress which was required for the Official Welcome and Departure.

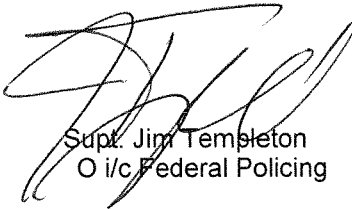

Last but not least, Sgt. Drew Callander who worked closely with Sgt. Pilon for several months prior to and during the visit. Sgt. Callander oversaw Regina Police Service's responsibilities for the entire visit to ensure everything was in place. Due to Sgt. Callander's time and good work ethic, the result was another successful visit.

✓ The professionalism, flexibility and dedication demonstrated by all of your officers is a credit to your Police Department.

Thanks again and we look forward to working with your Police Service in the near future.

Yours truly,
