On behalf of the 2013 Queen City Ex Parade Committee, we would like to thank you and your organization for your participation in this year's parade. The success we received this year was certainly due in part to your involvement. Indeed your participation and support facilitated the communities' enjoyment of another successful parade.

We look forward to your involvement in next year's parade and will send out the information on the date as soon as we have confirmed it. Indeed we know some entries are already working on their ideas and concepts for next year.

On behalf of the 2013 Queen City Ex Parade Committee have a great fall, take a break and get some rest before next year. We look forward to hearing from you and receiving your entry for next year's parade.

Yours truly,

Re: My Recent Experience with the Service [REDACTED]

There is a tendency to criticize service that we consider unsatisfactory, but not to applaud good service.

To buck this tendency, I wish to express thanks for the recent excellent response I received from the Service recently.

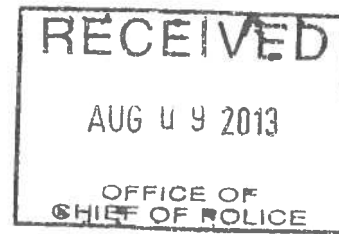

I lost my wallet last Friday and wondered if such a small event should be reported. A friend in the Service advised that it would be a good idea to report the incident. The man who received my call treated with respect and courtesy. He also gave me very useful advice and contacts about replacing lost cards plus how to prevent identity theft.

Sincere thanks.

Dear Sir:

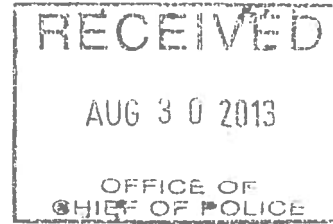

Evraz Place would like to thank the Regina Police Service for their work at the 2013 Queen City Ex. Having the Regina Police working alongside Evraz Place's security team created a safe and enjoyable Queen City Ex for everyone. The Queen City Ex would not be successful without the help of the Regina Police Service. The relationship we have maintained over the years has been excellent and contributes to the success of the Queen City Ex. A special thank you goes out to S/Sgt Trevor Ewart and A/Sgt Casey Ward for their hard work and dedication throughout the week; they were friendly and helpful in every way. The comments received from attendee's, staff, and volunteers in 2013 were very positive. Evraz Place Security and Regina Police Service made the 2013 Queen City Ex a safe and family friendly environment for all staff and attendee's. The 2013 Queen City Ex was the most successful and safe Queen City Ex to date and the Regina City Police is a huge part of this success.

We are grateful for your support and want you to know it was critical to our success this year and every year. We look forward to your continued support in 2014.

Yours truly,

Chief Troy Hagen

Sir:

Today, we conducted a trial in Traffic Safety Court where Corporal Casey Ward was the investigating officer. Cpl. Ward testified and a conviction was obtained. Enough about that. I had to inform you as to the professionalism displayed by the corporal, prior to, throughout, and post trial. His attitude, deportment, and testimony was very impressive, to say the least. When answering questions during the trial, he spoke clearly, confidently, and directly to the Justice. This was most impressive, especially coming from such a senior officer. For a certainty, another credit to the Police Service. It was a pleasure to witness, and I thank him very much.

Subject: A note of thanks

Hello, Judy,

I want to send a note of appreciation to the Regina City policemen who were trying to apprehend a couple of "bad guys" in my neighbourhood last night (Monday night). I was awakened by the two "bad guys" as they ran through my yard and were talking right outside my bedroom window. That gives you quite a start at 1:00 a.m. When I saw a police car in my bay ([REDACTED]) I knew the police were in pursuit so I phoned 911.

I was able to speak to one of your members and he said he was going to check my back yard. While he was doing that, two other policemen with a dog in tow, were checking the yard immediately behind my yard. For someone who lives alone, I was so grateful for their presence.

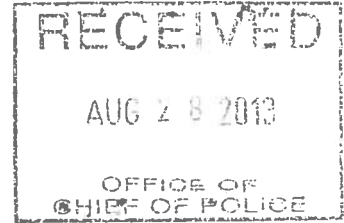

✓ The 911 lady was appreciated as well. She very kindly phoned me back to assure me all was clear.

If you are able in some way to pass my gratitude on, I would appreciate that.

Thanks, Judy!

Dear Chief Hagen:

Gordon and I had occasion to attend the recent Paul McCartney Concert in Regina. As you know, it was a hectic night for all concerned, especially for the Regina Police Service.

The three RPS officers who served as VIP escorts to my party did so with professionalism and efficiency in the face of large and excitable crowds. The impressive officers are Corporal Shane Hoedel, Constable Russ Temple, and Constable Chris Thacyk. I felt extremely well protected and am most grateful.

Please pass long my thanks to each of the officers. I always look forward to working with the Regina Police Service, and commend you on your leadership with the men and women who serve and protect us.

Subject: Praise

Good afternoon Cpl. Bourassa,

Can you please pass along my praise to the chef and these two officers shift commanders for this praise.

Recently Cst. Jason Wilkinson attended Canadian Tire north Albert for a Shop lifting. He was with Cst. Scott Douglas. Wilkinson was very professional, polite and understanding of the situation. He was very quick at answering all my questions I had via email and was professional when he responded.

Douglas attended a call to the same store yesterday (2013-08-25) and was LPO Sass who had the arrest but asked me to swing by and assist him. When this male was being rude, disrespectful and calling Douglas names he remained, claim, cool, collective and very professional. He never raised his voice and was very mellow. He was respectful towards the LPO since his report wasn't completely done yet.

Thank you to these two officers for their amazing respect and professionalism as this is always great to see. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me via cell or email.

Again thank you and have a great day,

Dion

I wanted to send the Regina Police Service and Officer Jody Lorence (and of course, Kruz) a GIANT thank you!!! Officer Lorence and Kruz has made the day of my 6 year old son, who dreams of becoming a police officer when he grows up.

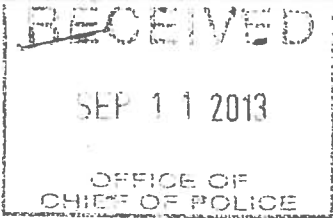

A little bit of background is that my son lost his beloved stuffed dog on a family camp trip this summer. It has been 6 weeks, and he still cries himself to sleep over having left "Little Brown Puppy" at the playground. After hours and hours of online searching for a replacement, I turned up empty. Officer Lorence had heard about it, and had an idea to help lift Griffin's spirits. He offered to deliver a new stuffed dog to our residence with the help of Kruz. Tonight, he made that happen.

Officer Lorence was so incredibly professional, yet so very kind. He was caring, and took the time to talk with Griffin at his level, introduced him to Kruz and show him in the cruiser. He answered every question with a calm and patient response. To say he Lifted the spirits of a 6 year old is a large understatement! Griffin is over the moon. He ran into the house and screamed "THAT WAS AWESOME!!!!!!"

From the bottom of my heart, I'd like to say a huge Thank you to Officer Jody Lorence and to Kruz!!!! This little boy's heart is filled (as is his mother's).

I believe it was Aug 4th while in my yard, I was greeted by one of your staff who reported he had a gentleman in his car, apparently suffering from some memory loss. Indeed I did recognize [redacted] my former wonderful neighbour.
He was without an ID band or any other identification
The details are unimportant but I was able to accompany him back to Victoria Park? in the police car.

The 2 officers were very efficient in their observation @ the home, they showed a great deal of professionalism and the compassion
they showed to [redacted], was so precious
I do not know their names. I just hope they receive this accolade, along with my sincere appreciation. [redacted] has now moved to,
what I hope is a more secure facility.

Thank you so much Margaret J. Felt

Dear Chief Hagen :

I wanted to thank Regina Police Service (RPS) for the generous donation of retired uniforms for the High School Emergency Services Response Training Program. The pilot project is on track and students from St. Mary's and Wesmor community high schools in Prince Albert will commence classes in January 2014. The program will be evaluated with plans of making this training available at locations around the province.

RPS was one of the first organizations to offer support through this kind of donation. Although the return on investment is not immediately tangible, we know that in the long run this support will have a positive impact on the lives of many young people, who through this program, will chose a career in the field of public safety.

Again, thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Duane McKay

TO WHOM EVER THIS MAY CONCERN

Cst. Dean Lusok - Instructing on the Level 3 Advanced Collision Analysis Course

We hosted a Level 3 Advanced Collision Analysis course here in Regina at Depot Division from September 9-27, 2013. Cst. Lusok approached me last winter and volunteered to help instruct the course, which I was happy to accept.

Cst. Lusok was responsible for providing classroom instruction, being a syndicate leader, marking exams and assignments and assisting with practical testing on the track. One of Dean's strongest assets is his people skills because he was an excellent syndicate leader. Dean was in constant contact with his group of course candidates and met with them every day after hours. This took Dean away from his family but showed his dedication to his commitment to instructing the course.

Dean was also a huge asset to the course because of his local knowledge of the city that he lives in and polices. Dean was able to secure three old bicycles from the Regina Police Service that were scheduled to be disposed of. The bicycles were required for practical testing at the track. The testing provided an opportunity to the course candidates to witness a real life bicycle collision with a vehicle. The candidates were able to see the unique dynamics of a bicycle collision and practice data gathering for these types of unique collisions. Access to these bicycles was very much appreciated.

I want to commend Cst. Lusok on his commitment and participation with this course. His participation ensured the course ran smoothly and was successful. Dean's knowledge in the area of collision investigation was very apparent throughout the course. It was apparent that the course candidates absorbed the material because the overall class average was 95%.

It was a pleasure working with Dean and look forward to more in the future.

Police Chief Hagen, I hope this email finds you well and in good spirits. I recently attended the annual Sisters and Spirit vigil, feast and pipe ceremony at the First Nations University on Friday Oct 4. As you may be aware this event brought together so many diverse community members from Regina and surrounding area, youth, elders, students, mothers, sisters and so many more. It was very encouraging to see such a large presence of the Regina City Police playing a huge role in making this event a success and raising the level of its importance. Please express my gratitude and appreciation to the RPS members and staff for all their great work, thank you for your continued and very visible commitment to support our Aboriginal community.

Message Body:

I just wanted to say thank you to the dispatcher at 777-6500 (I beleive her name was Jessie), and to the police that came to check on our house last night. I called last night (Wednesday, October 1st) because there was a suspicious car that had been driving past our house multiple times, and I have just moved to the area and felt a bit scared. Jessie was pleasant to talk to and made sure the police were out to my house in minutes. After speaking with a police officer, he and other police cars waitied outside my house to see if the car would come back. I appreciated them coming out to check out the situation, just wanting to say thank you!

Hi Judy!

I just received a call from George Baran who attended the Rider game on Saturday September 14/13. He said that there were a number of people that were parked in an area where their vehicles were towed. He said that he was very impressed with the officers because they were very helpful and went back to the police station to get the paper work sorted out so that these people wouldn't have to go to the station on the following Sunday. He thought that they went above and beyond and wanted to let someone know about their efforts.

Dear Chief Hagen,

Thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to speak to the Superannuated Teachers on Monday, Sept. 16.

People were full of compliments after your presentation. "Good program", "interesting session", "what a gentleman!" were some of the comments.

We wish you well as you work with all the community programs (particularly the youth) and in your struggle to reduce crime.
