Dear Ms. O'Soup:

On behalf of the Policy Centre for Victim Issues at the Department of Justice Canada I would like to express our sincere thanks for your participation on the Organizing Committee for National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2013. Your patience and your willingness to continue to provide your expertise and guidance in the weeks leading up to Victims Week 2013 are very much appreciated. Planning this event is a team effort, and we are very grateful for your participation on the committee during the past year.

National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2013 was successful in meeting its main objective: to raise awareness about victim issues in Canada. More communities than ever before hosted events and ran public awareness campaigns which brought attention to the needs of victims and their families. The Symposium held in Gatineau on April 22 provided participants with an opportunity to exchange ideas and reflect on the needs of victims and current service delivery. Your contribution to the planning of Victims Week 2013 was an important part of these efforts to improve the experience of victims in the criminal justice system.

Please accept the enclosed certificate as a token of appreciation for your contribution to the Organizing Committee for National Victims of Crime Awareness Week 2013.

Sincerely,

Pamela Arnott
Director and Senior Counsel
Policy Centre for Victim Issues
Department of Justice Canada

To Chief of Police:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Detective Corporal Dean Ross and Detective Constable Michelle Solomon, who recently provided a cyber-awareness presentation to SaskPower as part of our bi-annual Safety training. Not only was the material important to safeguard employees at work, it also provided important information by which they may remain "cyber safe" in their personal lives. Comments from several employees indicate this was by far, one of the best Safety meetings they had attended.

As part of Saskatchewan's Critical Infrastructure network, we value the close working relationship between our respective organizations. I would ask that you please extend my thanks to your officers on the professional manner in which they provided our employees this training.

Yours truly,

Tom Kindred

Last night I phoned in a noise complaint (at st-pius school, kids partying), I understand why sometimes it takes a while to answer those type of calls. Last night response time was impressively quick. The matter was dealt with, and my family was able to get a good night sleep., and we all thank you.

Yours truly

officers Morley Hall & his partner that night
(he was from Nova Scotia originally & had a

Received a call from Clarence Schmidt, regarding He wanted to let us know that the officers that attended to for this were speedy and did a great job. They have been having problems with these kids for a while now. Mr. Schmidt said that he wanted to say "thank you for a great job"! He was very happy with the outcome.

Candace Benko

Thank you for joining us on June 26th, 2013. Your presentation was excellent!! We are able to see the intense amount of investigation and cooperation between agencies needed to stop this form of child abuse. The commitment and dedication needed not only by the police officers providing this service, but of their families is very significant.

Thank you for the very difficult work that you do and for providing us with a view from your lens. Keep up the fight and thank you again !!!
