Hi Brandi and Heather,

Thanks so much again for the invitation for Law Day. I received the students' feedback and I've summarized their common ideas in this email as well as provided you with some feedback in their actual words.

The students felt very honored to attend Law Day. It was so important to have them connect with the Regina Police Service in order to help them understand Canadian Police culture as this may differ in comparison to their countries. Having the Regina Police Service staff sit at different tables with the students and mix was very beneficial. It showed the students that they are respected in Canada and that they can build a relationship with the Regina Police Service. The Police Station tour was wonderful and enjoyable as always. Having the Chief of Regina Police Service speak was very important for our students. It made them feel appreciated that the Regina Police Service Chief would take time out of his day to meet with them and speak with them. It also helps the students start to build a good rapport with the Regina Police Service. The students mentioned having a greater understanding of when to call 911 and what

Dear Sir,

Re: Recent Canine Competition

I would like to take this opportunity recognize members of your Police Service who, in my opinion, went above and beyond to assist myself and members of our Canine Section in a recent selection process.

✓ On Saturday, April 12, 2014, Sgt. Jason Gunderson, Cpl. Jody Lorence, Sgt. William (Willy) Hayden, Sgt. Alana Stach and Cst. Bryant Westerman invited and assisted us to their scenario training which was extremely beneficial for our members and enhanced our selection process. The continued partnerships and assistance that we share between our agencies certainly does not go unnoticed and is appreciated by myself and others.

Please extend my sincere thanks to these officers for their efforts.

Sincerely,

Insp. Tim Arnott

Dear Ms. Andrea Costanza:

I understand that you will be returning to the Regina Police Service (RPS) as of January 28, 2014, marking the end of your one-year term with Correctional Service Canada (CSC). I would like to take a moment to thank you for your role in making the Community Corrections Liaison Officer (CCLO) initiative a successful program within CSC and local communities.

✓ The CCLO initiative plays an important role in keeping our communities safe. Your commitment and participation over the past year have been exemplary, and it is evident that you truly are an advocate for this initiative.

✓ At the local level, you have shown great dedication and professionalism in your assigned duties. Your work as the CCLO has assisted CSC in Southern Saskatchewan to significantly reduce Unlawfully at Large Offenders in the community. Your work has also greatly assisted parole officers in the supervision of high risk offenders. These two measures alone contribute to increased public safety results and are a credit to your hard work. Your achievements are also noteworthy in the area of building and establishing a collaborative working relationship between the RPS and CSC. Your efforts in establishing and maintaining a professional working relationship between the two organizations are appreciated.

Once again, I wish to thank you for your outstanding performance and lasting contributions to the CCLO initiative, as well as to CSC.

I wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Don Head

Hey, so I study Kinesiology at the University of Regina - and one avenue of research is the therapeutic benefit of walking around barefoot. I try to get out for a barefoot stroll on a daily basis now that the weather is nice.

Anyways - a concerned citizen contacted the police because seeing someone walking around barefoot is not a very common sight.

I would just like to say that the Officers were of the utmost Professionalism - they were clearly concerned for my safety and well being. I explained the reasons for not wearing shoes - and once they realized I was not on drugs or a danger to myself they offered me a ride home!

I see a strong Police Force as a prime necessity for a healthy and safe society - and I am proud to say that Regina Police are among the best in the world.

Not every country is so lucky - thank you all for keeping Regina safe.
