New Police Sector Council Guide

Police Executive Selection

PSC Leadership Workshop

Executive Selection

Benefits for Board:

- Nationally validated Rank Task lists.
- Nationally validated Rank Competency profiles.
- Job-related selection criteria – BFOR.
- Assessment tools for evaluation and selection of candidates, and interview guidelines and questions.
- Defensible process – public accountability.
- Provides flexibility – Board can build process to meet local needs using templates.

PSC Leadership Workshop

Executive Selection

Board Direction for Process:

- Consistent, transparent and defensible process.
- Ensure best candidate selected – open competition.
- Ensure position description identified Board's required job responsibilities and competencies for the position.
- Board to manage the process with Chief and Director as advisors.
- HR Manager involved in assisting Board with process.
- Established timelines for process based on retirement date.

PSC Leadership Workshop

Executive Selection

Assisting the Board:

- Review draft Police Executive Selection Guide.
- Prepared for the Board:
 - Task list for DC position (define “task”).
 - Leadership competencies list for DC position (define “competency”).
 - Other job requirements (education, knowledge, experience).
 - Defined assessment process- resume review and screening, competency based interviews, sample questions, reference checks, background investigation, selection requirements.
 - Definition of three types of interview questions.
 - Interview guide.

PSC Leadership Workshop

Executive Selection

Assisting the Board (cont'd):

- Detailed schedule developed identifying key steps and timelines in process based on material from Police Executive Selection Guide.
- Board adapted to their needs and approved.
- Board has been using schedule and updating in the process – keeps them on track and in sync.
- HR Manager working with the Board on screening and selection matrices.

Comments:

- Boards will still rely on consultants and/or staff to help with the process.
- Guide may be intimidating to Board but if broken down into steps customized to meet local needs it gives them a good understanding of the process and the need for consistency, fairness and transparency, and importance of competency based selection.
- Not bound by lists tasks and competencies – can add or subtract as locally needed.
